

Tax Agents Services Regime

What you need to know: a practical guide

Contents

- 1. The Tax Practitioners Board
 - 1.1 Composition of the Board
 - 1.2 Functions of the Board
- 2. Scope of services covered by the TASA
 - 2.1 Tax agent service
 - 2.2 BAS service
 - 2.3 Examples of tax agent services and BAS services
 - 2.3.1 Practical examples – tax agent services
 - 2.3.2 Practical examples – BAS agent services
 - 2.4 Specialist services
 - 2.5 In-house advisors for wholly-owned groups
- 3. Registration
 - 3.1 Tax agent – individuals
 - 3.1.1 Meaning of relevant experience for tax agents
 - 3.2 BAS agent – individuals
 - 3.2.1 Meaning of relevant experience for BAS agents
 - 3.3 Registration requirements – companies
 - 3.4 Fit and proper person
 - 3.5 Partnerships and companies – registered individuals
 - 3.6 Trusts providing tax agent services and BAS services
 - 3.7 Recognised tax agent association and recognised BAS agent association
 - 3.8 Transitional arrangements
 - 3.8.1 Previously registered tax agents
 - 3.8.2 Registered nominees
 - 3.8.3 Pre-1988 registrations
 - 3.8.4 Unregistered agents
 - 3.8.5 Pending applications
 - 3.8.6 BAS service providers
 - 3.9 Application for registration
 - 3.10 Renewal of registration
 - 3.11 Registration fees
 - 3.12 Register of registered agents

Tax Agents Services Regime: Contents (cont)

- 4. Code of Professional Conduct
- 5. Administrative sanctions for breaches of the CPC
- 6. Notification of a change of circumstances
 - 6.1 Individuals
 - 6.2 Partnerships
 - 6.3 Companies
- 7. Termination
- 8. Civil penalties
 - 8.1 Unregistered providers of services
 - 8.2 Registered agents
- 9. Administrative review
- 10. Administrative penalties for taxpayers – safe harbour provisions
 - 10.1 Reasonable care
 - 10.2 Application of penalties
 - 10.3 Flowchart – shortfall arising from false or misleading statement
 - 10.4 Flowchart – late lodgement or non-lodgement
- 11. Risk management
 - 11.1 Engagement letters